The Works of EDGAR ALLAN POE

And One Year's Subscription to Pearson's Magazine

The Times-Dispatch.

READ THE OFFER.

HIS is an exceptional offer. It is a real pleasure to afford such an opportunity to TIMES-DISPATCH readers as is offered on this page. THE TIMES-DISPATCH gladly gives every reader the benefit of its purchasing power in this attractive premium-the works of Edgar Allan Poe, the celebrated author who was so closely identified with Richmond and Virginia. Over half a century has passed since his death, and to-day the literary world bows to his greatness. As the years roll by his fame increases. His works have been translated into many foreign languages and the magic name of Poe is a household word in his native land, and not only here but wherever civilized peoples exist in all parts of the world.

The works of this original man of genius should be in every household, on every library table, and THE TIMES-DISPATCH believes that the set of Poe's works, in ten volumes, which are here offered, will be thoroughly appreciated by every one who is fortunate in securing a set. To round out the offer, Pearson's Magazine has been included—a full year's subscription—twelve consecutive months. In this well known standard magazine (10c a copy, $1.00 a year) will be found stories and special articles by many famous authors, and its monthly visits for a year will be a source of great pleasure.

Read the Description.

In this advertisement is incorporated a description of the ten beautiful volumes of the works of Edgar Allan Poe. The set includes 71 stories, 55 poems, a complete novel of almost 300 pages. The Narrative of A. Gordon Pym, an appreciative Memoir, "The Life of Poe" by James Russell Lowell, and "The Death of Poe" by N. P. Willis. We shall not attempt to give a nominal value to this dainty set of Poe's works. We do not sell it alone: We could not afford to—we are not booksellers. It is simply used as a striking advertisement to draw attention of new readers to THE TIMES-DISPATCH and to give our old readers an opportunity to get the set of books, and the magazine for a year, by simply complying with the conditions of this offer as outlined on this page.
